Extract from the Articles of Association (dated 03-06-2018)

§ 2 Basis and purpose, tasks and means

(1) Die The continuing basis of the work and witness of the Young Men's Christian Association is expressed in the Paris Basis of 1855:

“The Young Men's Christian Associations seek to unite those young men who, regarding Jesus Christ as their God and Saviour, according to the Holy Scriptures, desire to be his disciples in their faith and in their life, and to associate their efforts for the extension of his Kingdom amongst young men.

Any differences of opinion on other subjects, however important in themselves, shall not interfere with the harmonious relations of the constituent members and associates of the World Alliance.”

In 1976, the YMCA General Association adopted the following additional statement to the Paris Basis:

"The YMCAs originated as an association of young men. Today, membership is open to all. Men and women, boys and girls from all nations, denominations and social classes form the worldwide community in the YMCA. Today, the "Paris Basis" applies to the work with all young people in the YMCA as a whole."
